Erupting Volcanoes

On Friday the students in Grade 1/2H built an erupting volcano as part of their studies in Science. The students followed some simple steps, and under the guidance of Professor Hume (aka Mr. Hume), they were able to combine some house hold ingredients to make the red lava flow out the top. The looks and sounds of excitement across the whole class were just wonderful to see.

Last night was our Annual General Meeting for Parents and Friends. Unfortunately we were not able to hold this meeting due to lack of attendance. Parents and Friends is a wonderful group of parents and are looking for more members. A survey will be coming home soon to all families via email. Please take the time to complete this survey, allowing us to make a decision on the future of Parents and Friends at Beaufort Primary

Last Wednesday we started our Nude Food Wednesdays. Around 25 students participated, getting their names in the draw for a free lunch order that will be drawn at the next assembly. We would really like to see more students participating in Nude Food Wednesday.

The Junior School Council met last week and have decided to hold a Crazy Hair Day on Friday 18th March. Students can come to school with Crazy Hair of any kind on this day. This is not a free dress day. A coin donation would be greatly appreciated and all money will go to the Leukaemia Foundation.

We are holding a Family Picnic night on Wednesday 23rd March starting around 5.00pm. Throughout the day, the students will all take part in a Kelly Sports program and then Kelly Sports will attend the picnic, providing games and activities for families to participate in. Kelly Sports are looking at starting an afterschool program in Term 2 for our students. They will be distributing this information on the night.

Tomorrow after school is the FREE come and try Taekwondo session at school, starting at 4pm.

As I walked around the school this morning at 10.15am, this is what I saw happening in every classroom.

Students are happy and engaged in their learning.

In LOTE we have been learning the correct greeting depending on the time of day, and the first 15 characters in the Hiragana script. Today we are learning about Japanese culture and traditions, with the focus on Hinamatsuri (Girl’s Day). Expensive dolls are set up in homes that have daughters for good luck in life and marriage, and we have learnt that peach blossoms are important to ward off evil spirits.
